Len, we need to decide whether to file the Demand for the following PCT patent application:

* H0003511PCT entitled "Interactive Design System". The inventors are: Michelle Raymond, Todd Carpenter, Christopher Miller, Dale Vernon Reising and Liana-Maria Kiff.

There is a $1600 cost associated with the Demand, and the Demand is only necessary if Honeywell intends to file national stage patent applications in any one of the following countries: Brazil, Singapore, Serbia/Montenegro, Norway, Tanzania, or South America.

Please let me or Matt Luxton know by Wednesday, September 24th, whether you think Honeywell needs to file applications in any of these countries.

Thanks in advance for the help -- please contact Matt Luxton at (612) 951-6145 if you have any questions or comments.

Karen, this application is a PCT application that we filed off of the U.S. provisional application. I was not planning on filing an IDS until we enter the U.S. national phase.

Speaking of which, has Honeywell reached a decision yet whether to enter Chapter II by filing a demand or to go national directly without filing a demand?
